HEARST ACCEPTS.

Takes Democratic Nomination and Says He's Glad to Get It.

Elmira, N. Y., Oct. 12.—William Randolph Hearst has formally accepted the Democratic nomination for governor of New York state in a letter addressed to W. J. Connelley, chairman of the Democratic state committee. The letter says in part:

"I accept the nomination of the Democratic party, bearing in mind the record of that great party in the past and knowing that the membership of the party is composed of the best citizens of the state."

"It cannot be denied that certain individuals and classes have at times secured control of the machinery of the Democratic party and attempted to use it for their own personal or class profit. The duty of true Democrats is to deprive of all authority within the party those who represent only special interests and who seek to promote such interests at the expense of the general welfare."

"The Democratic convention at Buffalo did this thing in a most conspicuous and effective manner. Democrats so-called, but seeking after special privileges in reality, were driven over into the Republican party where those who represent the people are to be found."

"The line is now clearly drawn between special privileges on one hand and equal opportunity on the other. The Democratic party, purged of those who represent only special interests, stands ready to accept the state of corporation control and pledged to end the boss control through which corporations act, now has an opportunity to serve the people as efficiently as it did in the times of Jefferson and Jackson."

"To serve the people and the party today as efficiently as in the days of Jefferson and Jackson is only necessary to be sincerely Democratic and loyal to Democratic principles."

"The attitude that the Democracy should take toward great capitalistic organizations now is precisely that of Jackson toward the United States bank, which appeared as a menace in his day."

"The property rights of every man and of every organization of any kind must be respected, but today, as in the days of Jackson, it is necessary to declare that no power shall rise up greater than the government or menacing to the government."

"The Democrats of today must declare and they must mean that no matter how great the wealth of individuals or corporations, that wealth must not be an irresponsible dominating power in government."

"The people beyond any question demand open primaries and the passage of direct laws to bring the government directly under the control of the people."

"The enforcement of the eight-hour law and the enforcement of the law concerning the prevailing rate of wages is demanded by the people and it is demanded by Democratic principles as old as the Declaration of Independence."

"Democracy speaks also in denunciation of the great Chinese labor menace which is now revived because of the introduction on a large scale of Chinese labor into this country, and to employ by the taxpayers of this country a people of low intelligence."

"I pledge myself to work with others to rid the Democratic party, and so far as possible, all branches of government of that plutocratic trust element that seeks to rule both parties and to destroy the Democracy utterly."

"I promise faithfully, if elected, to do all that I can as a citizen of the United States in office to realize and apply the great principles of the historical Democratic party."

"And I pledge myself to work with others to rid the Democratic party, and so far as possible, all branches of government of that plutocratic trust element that seeks to rule both parties and to destroy the Democracy utterly."

"I promise faithfully, if elected, to do all that I can as a citizen of the United States in office to realize and apply the great principles of the historical Democratic party."

The nomination of the Democracy, proudly, as I recall the great names from Jefferson to Tilden, which the party has honored and which have honored the party. I accept the nomination gladly, realizing the opportunity which is offered today to all of those that may be elected to office as servants of the people, and anxious to deserve the confidence of the people.
